

ROUND

30 June – 17 September

This activity sheet is suitable for primary students in Years 3 - 6

Student Name & School: _____

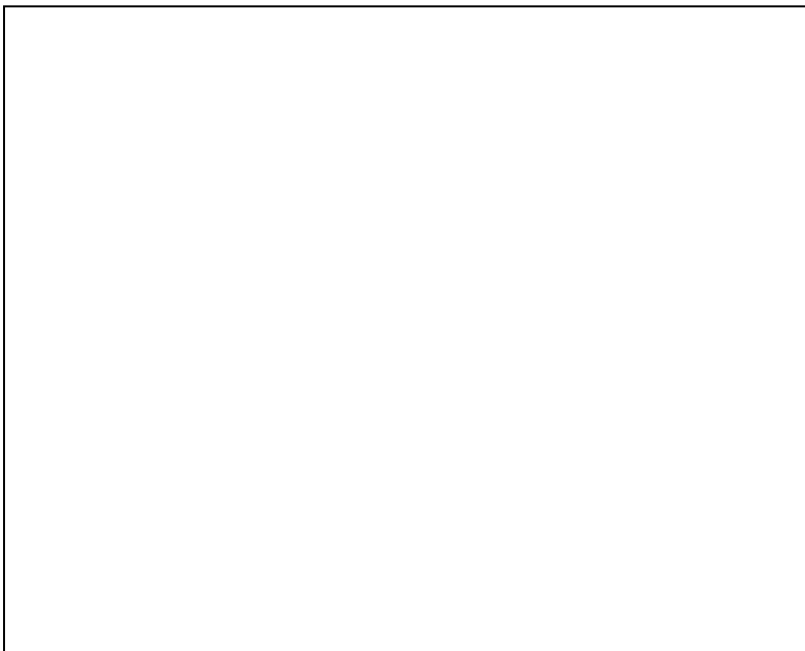

Question 1 – Find this artwork by artist Lisa Jones

Volume, 2023, graphite, gesso, paper, glue, 40 & 60 cm diameter approximately (Photograph: Richard Glover)

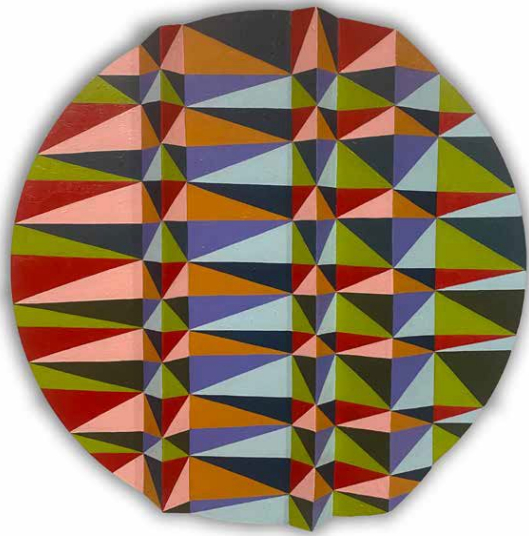

How is this sculpture of a globe different to a globe you would normally see?

Practical Activity – Lisa Jones

Using lead pencil draw one of Lisa Jones's sculptures in the box to the left.

Question 2 – Find this artwork by Al Munro

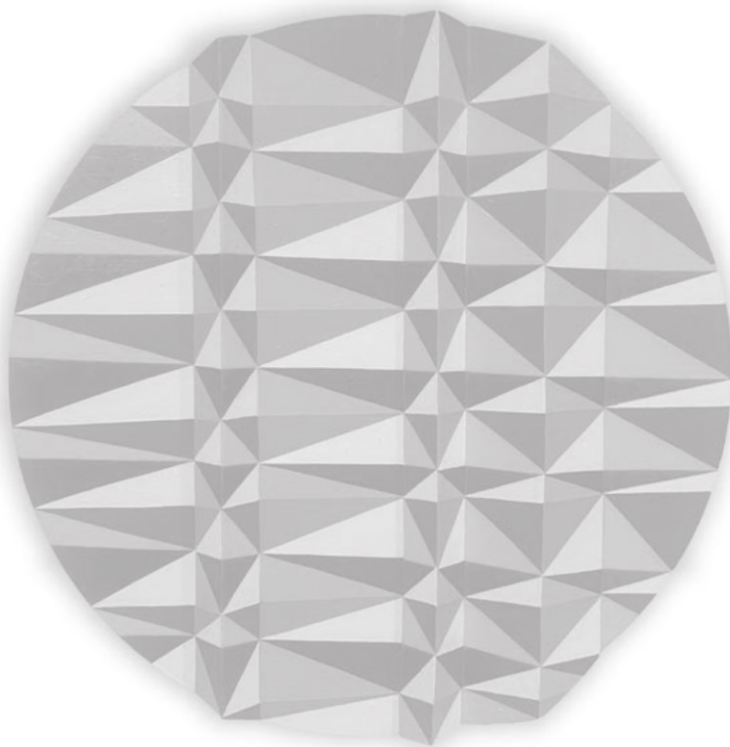

Regular/irregular (round 1), 2022, acrylic paint on boxboard and birch panel, 50 cm diameter.

This artwork features many shapes and colours. List the shapes you can see.

List the colours you can see.

Practical Activity – Al Munro

Using coloured pencils or markers, create your own colour scheme for the artwork below. Do this by shading over the top of the shapes you can see.

Question 3 – Find this artwork by Tom Loveday

Assisted Synesthesia 4, Musk, 2023, acrylic on birch panel, 50 cm diameter

This artwork has a scent. The artist wants you to go up closely to the artwork and smell it. What does this artwork smell like?

Imagine if you could taste this artwork?

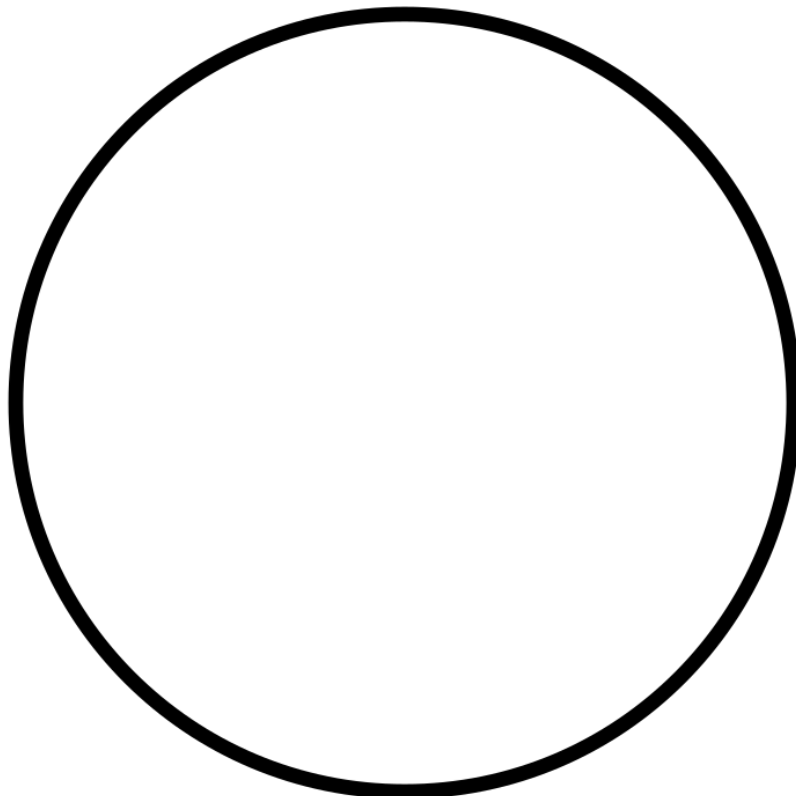

What flavour would the orange colour taste like?

What flavour would the purple colour taste like?

What flavour would the yellow colour taste like?

Practical Activity – Tom Loveday

Using a lead pencil copy the lines and shapes of one of Tom Loveday's artworks in the circle below. Colour with pencils or markers, but for your version, choose 3 different colours.

Question 4 – Find this artwork by Dani Marti

Pointless - Blanc Cendrós, 2022, customised reflectors, glass beads on aluminium frame, 128 cm diameter x 28 cm depth

The haiku is a Japanese poetic form that consists of three lines, with five syllables in the first line, seven in the second, and five in the third. Describe how you feel and what you see in this artwork by Dani Marti using the form of a haiku poem below.

Question 5 – Find this artwork by Lynne Eastaway

Disc I, 2023, acrylic on wood panel, 40 cm diameter (one of five pieces)

This artwork by Lynne Eastaway features shapes that we know but with slight changes made to them to create a new shape. For example, we can see a semi-circle with a square cut out long its straight edge.

What name could we give this new shape?

What other shapes can you see in this artwork?

Inside the blank circle to the right, create a new shape using straight and curved lines. What the name of this new shape?

